Team SYS-ED

From:	Hopeton Gallaway hgallawa@nysif.com - State Insurance Fund
To:	Dave Silverberg <support@sysed.com>
Subject:	Re: Executing ASP
Sent:	Mon, 01 Nov 1999 12:40:06 -0500

```
Dave:

I get the save result either way; if I double click on the file name or it
I open the file via IE. I think it has something to do with the association of file extension and program.

> Dave Silverberg wrote:
>

> Hopeton
>

> The best way is to open the directory on the server from IE. This > will list the files and you can double click on the files to > execute them.
>

> If you are using a local server use the following URL:
> hhtp://localhost/alias directory
>

> You must create the alias to the directory. If you are using > the Personnel Web Manager, click on Advanced, click on Add and > fill in the info.
```